All non-QAS approved self-study courses are recognized by Montana at HALF the number of CPE hours.

All of WiseGuides self-study courses are NASBA approved.

Some of WiseGuides™ courses are QAS and some are not QAS.

Therefore, if a course is posted on our website as an 8 hour QAS course, Montana will recognize 8 hours for that self-study course. (Example: our 1040 Course is an 8 Hour QAS course).

However, if a WiseGuides CPE course is not listed as a QAS course and it indicates 8 CPE hours, then Montana will only recognize 4 hours of CPE credit for the non-QAS course.

The Board will maintain a list of approved programs that fulfill this requirement. This course is not a routine ethics course, but is a special course for Ohio licensees. One credit (maximum) may be claimed on a course covering business ethics or ethical philosophy, the code of ethics of the "American Certified Public Accountants", or another state's professional ethics requirements.

Subject Breakdown: 24 hours of accounting or auditing (during the 3-year reporting period) is required if a permit holder assumes responsibility by performing work on any financial reporting engagement, prepares financial reports, or signs any financial reports in accordance with the professional standards as outlined in the Administrative Code. 24 hours of taxation (during the 3-year reporting period) is required if a permit holder assumes responsibility by performing work on any tax engagement, prepares any tax returns, or signs any tax returns as a CPA or PA. An Ohio permit holder specializing in taxation who assumes responsibility by performing tax work on any engagement that will result in an issuance of a report in accordance with Ohio regulations regarding generally accepted auditing standards shall complete at least eight (8) continuing education credits during the three-year reporting period covering the specific auditing or attestation standards related to the services provided by the Ohio permit holder. An Ohio permit holder who practices public accounting or performs regulated services other than preparing, working on, or signing financial reports, working on internal controls reports, working on any tax return or engagement, or who holds out to the public as a certified public accountant, shall complete at least seventy-five (75) per cent of the continuing education requirement in subjects directly related to the professional services performed by the Ohio permit holder.

Credit Limits: Self-study must include one or more examinations that must be successfully completed. Self study programs will earn credit based upon average completion time determined by pilot testing. Half credits are allowed after the first hour. An instructor or discussion leader may be awarded CE credit up to 3x the credit a program participant would receive. Prep time for classroom program does NOT earn separate credit. Credit for classroom teaching may be claimed only once each year. The board must evaluate credit claimed for publications or other special learning activities.

Other State Policies: The overriding consideration is that the CPE program should be a formal program of learning that contributes directly to the professional competence of an Ohio permit holder. Ohio accepts courses from providers that registered with the Board or with NASBA's National Registry of CPE Sponsors and/or Quality Assurance Service (QAS).
